

Egg Hunt

Mrs. Hen has lost her egg in the depths of a giant Easter basket. There are so many chicken footprints around, she can't remember how to get to the bottom of the basket. Can you help?

The chicken footprints are actually arrows, pointing the ways you are allowed to travel. For example,  means you must proceed to the square directly below and follow its direction. Half of the squares offer you a choice of two directions.

Flowers have always been a symbol of new life. People everywhere hurry up spring by planting bulbs in a pot in the sunniest window. Cats like warm windowsills, too! How many of these symbols of spring can you find in this picture? (butterflies (5), deer head (1), spirals (19), stalks of grain (2), bundles of grain (7), baby chicks (2), rakes (5), sun (1), flying birds (8), artist's signature (Judy Campbell))
